

EESAC Parent Representatives Election Notice

An election for EESAC parent representatives will be conducted on Friday, September 19th at 8:45 a.m. in the Middle School Cafeteria.

The Educational Excellence School Advisory Council (EESAC) is the sole body responsible for final decision making at the school relating to the implementation of the school improvement and accountability plan. The purpose of the Key Biscayne K-8 Center EESAC is to bring together all stakeholders to ensure improved student achievement. The EESAC supports the school's vision of being a community of lifelong learners and caring individuals.

The Council is composed of the principal, teachers, educational support employees, parents, students, and business representatives. Member responsibilities include assisting in the preparation and evaluation of the School Improvement Plan (SIP) and developing, discussing and implementing strategies for school improvement. Regular meetings of the council are held in the Media Center at 2:10 p.m. on the 3rd Wednesday of every month beginning in September. All meetings are open to the public and everyone is welcome to attend. For more information, please visit our school's web page or contact a current member via email by clicking on the members' list.
