KBCS PTA NEEDS YOU!

Dear KBCS Parents and Teachers:

The PTA Nominating committee is honored and privileged to seek candidates to serve as the 2017-2018 PTA Executive Board.

The PTA Executive Board serves as a valuable liaison between the parents, students, teachers, administration, MDCPS, and our community.

With the guidance of our principal, Mrs. Tarafa and working closely with PTA Committee chairs, and PTA members; the Executive Board oversees PTA sponsored activities, programming support, school improvements, instructional materials, staff support (and so much more), contributing greatly to the overall experience and environment of our school.

The purpose of the nominating committee is to recognize and seek qualified nominees for the elected leadership of the PTA. Over the course of the next month, prior to the election, we will hold the following informational meetings in the media center:

Tuesday, April 25, 2017 8:45AM PTA Q&A-What it means to be on the PTA Executive Board Group discussion for anyone seeking a board position

Tuesday, May 9, 2017 8:45AM Meet all the Candidates-PTA members are invited to come meet all the candidates interested in being on the board

Tuesday, May 23, 2017 8:45AM Official Election Meeting-The nominating committee announces the recommended slate. Names of any other interested candidates will be taken from the floor. Voting takes place at this meeting.

You may express your interest in one of two ways: (1) email kbcsppta@yahoo.com or (2) complete the bottom portion of this letter and return it to the elementary school office NO LATER THAN FRIDAY, MAY 5, 2017.

We are so excited to hear from you, thank you.

The Nominating Committee
